

FINANCIAL ASTROLOGY

2 Day Workshop – 6 & 7 September 2008

Astrologers have long applied their craft to the world of business and finance, and done it with some success.

Financial Astrology covers such diverse areas as: forecasting economic cycles, electing company charts, recognising the cycles in the stock market and predicting turning points in company share prices.

Anne Elliott, a Financial and a Horary Astrologer, will introduce you to these topics and more as she looks at the tools and techniques used by Financial Astrologers both historically and currently.

Learn methods to elect the best time for to commence a business and how to choose a good company chart. Do company charts progress and are they subject to transits? Are there cycles in economic affairs? How can we use them to improve our own financial positions or to make a living as a Financial Astrologer? How can we choose the most profitable company when investing in the stockmarket? What is likely to happen to my company of choice this year?

Assumed level of knowledge is the Earth Institute Certificate in Contemporary Astrology or external equivalent (i.e. 12 months study in a class environment.)
