ON SOLAR REVOLUTIONS

Robert Corre

Revolutions (or as they are called today, returns) are one of the most popular traditional forecasting techniques. They are an extension of transits that add the complexity of needing to take into account both the natal and return houses. More than any forecasting technique, revolutions yield great insight into the revival or precipitation of events for the year based on the natal chart. The content of this session is drawn from Book 23 of the 17th century French astrologer and physician, Morin de Villefranche's Astrologia Gallica.

Y Room

NEPTUNE: FINDING OUR WAY IN THE FOG

Baris Ilhan

We are not all artists, mystics or mediums, but we all have Neptune somewhere in our charts. What does this Neptune want from us? How can we honor this cosmic guide? We will investigate the subject with Neptune's sign and house positions and more. Psychospiritual perspective. Suitable for all levels.
